How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him who brings good news. Is. 52:7

Dear friends and family,
"For the Lord is our Judge . . . He will save us." Isaiah 33:22

Most of you have probably heard the news that our little boy, Joshua Dan, made his appearance on October 21st at 11:04pm. We picked the above verse for Joshua based on the combined meaning of his names: The Lord is my Savior and Judge. We praise the Lord for his safe arrival and that the labor and delivery went well! We are so grateful that Justo's mom and youngest brother are here helping us during this time. Matthew has helped lighten Justo's ministry load for the time being and Mom is keeping the household running. We are enjoying our new addition to the family, and Joshua and Tricia are both doing well. Pray that Tricia would have quick and complete recovery.

The past couple months have been very busy with ministry. In September, all church activities started up again. Justo is leading the young couples' cell group, which is meeting once again at our house so Tricia can be a part of it too. He is also helping with the college and careers group as well. He has three young men that he is discipling weekly, and Tricia began working with a young woman from the church as well. We also have had another family begin homeschooling this year. Justo visits these families once every other week. Finally, he is continuing to teach at the Bible school every week.

Bible School youth leading worship

Other special events with the church from the past couple months include a work bee for a member of the church, doing a scouting trip to look for ministry opportunities with the youth, a youth event at the Bible school, and a camp retreat for families.

Pray that we can continue to be a light in every aspect of our lives here. May you have a wonderful, blessed season of worshipping our Savior and Judge!
Blessings,

Justo, Tricia, & family
