Ecuador

Flying back...

Dear Friends,

We've been back in Ecuador for a couple weeks now and are beginning to feel unpacked and settled. We flew back to Ecuador as planned on August 30/31. It was a long 24 hours of travel, but we were thankful things generally went very smoothly.

We are also slowly beginning to settle into our ministry routine. Classes began the second week of September at the Aletheia Bible school. This trimester Justo will be teaching English and the Gospel of John. Since arriving back, Justo has been asked to help more with the youth ministry for this school year. This wasn't really expected, but we are excited to get back into this active, rewarding ministry.

Upon arriving in Ecuador, we all came down with a bad cold/flu. This delayed some of the unpacking, but we are thankful to now be on the mend. Tricia has also begun some homeschooling with our older children.

In closing, we just want to praise the Lord for a new season of ministry and thank you for your part as well.

Love in Christ,

Justo, Tricia,
Nathanael, Hannah,
Joshua, & Isaac
